Documentation
Bibliographic description	Is it easily possible to describe the project bibliographically along the schema “responsible editors, publishing/hosting institution, year(s) of publishing”?  (cf. Catalogue 1.2)
	✓

Contributors	Are the contributors (editors, institutions, associates) of the project fully documented? (cf. Catalogue 1.4 )	✓
Contacts	Does the project list contact persons? (cf. Catalogue 1.5 )	✗
Selection of materials
Explanation	Is the selection of materials of the project explicitly documented? (cf. Catalogue 2.1 )	✓
Reasonability	Is the selection by and large reasonable? (cf. Catalogue 2.1 )	✗
Archiving of the data ⓘ Choose yes if you have reason to believe that the archiving and long term sustainability of the data is cared for (e.g. because the data is part of a platform that cares for these aspects), even if the documentation makes no explicit statement about it.	Does the documentation include information about the long term sustainability of the basic data (archiving of the data)? (cf. Catalogue 4.16 )	✗
Aims	Are the aims and purposes of the project explicitly documented? (cf. Catalogue 3.1 )	✓
Methods	Are the methods employed in the project explicitly documented? (cf. Catalogue 3.1 )	✓
Data Model	Does the project document which data model (e.g. TEI) has been used and for what reason? (cf. Catalogue 3.7 )	✗
Help	Does the project offer help texts concerning the use of the project? (cf. Catalogue 4.15 )	✓
Citation	Does the project supply citation guidelines (i.e. how to cite the project or a part of it)? (cf. Catalogue 4.8 )	✓
Completion	Does the editon regard itself as a completed project (i.e. not promise further modifications and additions)? (cf. Catalogue 4.16 )	✗
Institutional Curation ⓘ Select yes, if there is either an explicit claim that continuous maintenance for the project is provided by some institution or you have strong reason to believe that this is the case, even if it is not explicitly claimed, otherwise select no.	Does the project provide information about institutional support for the curation and sustainability of the project? (cf. Catalogue 4.13 )	✗
Contents
Previous Edition	Has the material been previously edited (in print or digitally)? (cf. Catalogue 2.2 )	✓
Materials Used	Does the edition make use of these previous editions? (cf. Catalogue 2.2 )	✓
Introduction	Does the project offer an introduction to the subject-matter (the author(s), the work, its history, the theme, etc.) of the project? (cf. Catalogue 4.15 )	✓

Bibliography	Does the project offer a bibliography? (cf. Catalogue 2.3 )	✓
Commentary	Does the project offer a scholarly commentary (e.g. notes on unclear passages, interpretation, etc.)? (cf. Catalogue 2.3 )	✗
Contexts	Does the project include or link to external resources with contextual material? (cf. Catalogue 2.3 )	✓
Images	Does the project offer images of digitised sources? (cf. Catalogue 2.3 )	✓
Image quality	Does the project offer images of an acceptable quality? (cf. Catalogue 4.6 )	✓
Transcriptions	Is the text fully transcribed? (cf. Catalogue 2.3 )	✓
Text quality	Does the project offer texts of an acceptable quality (typos, errors, etc.)? (cf. Catalogue 4.6 )	✓
Indices	Does the project feature compilations indices, registers or visualisations that offer alternative ways to access the material? (cf. Catalogue 4.5 )	✗
