

Call for Reviews

RIDE is calling for reviews of scholarly digital editions and other related projects. Please see our Call for Reviews.

We maintain a list of projects we would love to see reviews of, but of course we are also happy to consider your own suggestions.

You can find a list of projects that are currently under review here. Before you start working on a review, please contact the editor\(s\).

Reviews also have to comply to our guidelines and should make extensive use of our comprehensive Catalogue of Criteria for Reviewing Digital Scholarly Editions. Please read these documents carefully before writing your review.
